

Please do not weaken the wisconsin's no-call law. No business has the right to invade my private space, and this includes ringing my telephone. Phone solicitation is not like junk mail that I can dispose of at my leisure, it interrupts my life. The phone is not like TV, that I can just turn off if I don't like it, some incoming calls might be important. Please do the right thing, protect the public from the telemarketers.